CAMPAIGN FOR MEMBERS ENDS

Several Days Will be Required,
However, to Check up on Results
of Farm Bureau Drive

FINAL MEETINGS ARE HELD

Frances Wilson of Ging School, Union Township, Wins First in Grade School Essay Contest

The farm bureau forward movement formally came to a close in Rush county today, but several days will be required to check up on the campaign for new members and determine just what the 1923 membership will be.

Indications were even greater today that the membership would be doubled in the county as the result of the three-day drive which opened Monday night with four township meetings and closed today with a careful canvass of the four townships where the closing meetings of the campaign were held Wednesday night.

The meetings last night were at Arlington, Homer, Gowdy and Webb schools, southwest of Rushville, and from all of these townships—Posey, Walker, Orange and Rushville, today came the same encouraging reports that have followed the other township meetings.

In connection with the forward movement campaign, the prize winners in the common school grades essay contest were announced today. Frances Wilson of the Ging school, Union township, was awarded first prize, which is $5.00 in gold. Second prize went to Frances Benner of the Mays school, Center township, the prize being $2.50 in gold. The third prize, $1.00 in cash, was awarded to Marie Moore, R. R. 1, Lewisville, who lives in Washington township. The subject of the essay contest was "Why My Dad Belongs to The Farm Bureau." There was a similar contest for the high schools of the county, and the same cash prizes were offered. The prize winners have not yet been announced.

Definite returns today showed that the Rush County Farmers association has already rolled up 200 more members for 1923 and there is every reason to believe that the present

PEACE WITH TURKEY IS ALMOST AT HAND

Near East Conference Circles Confidently Expect Dardanelles Issue to be Settled at Once

U. S. INTERVENTION HELPFUL

(By United Press)

Lauzanne, Dec. 7.—Peace with the Turks is now considered almost at hand.

Conference circles today confidently expected that the issue of the Dardanelles would be settled immediately, enabling the delegations to take up and expedite the remaining principal questions, including the Ottoman debt, Asiatic frontiers and the capitulations.

Turkish reactions to the allied proposals of yesterday developed no serious opposition and the intervention of America showing her complete solidarity with the allies was declared to have helped greatly to secure Turkey's acquiescence.

Optimism prevailed here today as the delegates were about to assemble to hear the Turkish and Russian replies.

Continued opposition was expected from the Russians but the conference had reason to think Turkey's objections were not insurmountable. After the meeting yesterday the Turkish delegates met with the allied naval and military representatives to see how the allied plan would work out in practice. Complete explanations were given them by the allies and it was seen that the Turks might find the Dardanelles plan acceptable with only slight modifications.

Santa Claus Letters

The first Santa Claus letters have been received and are being published in the Daily Republican. As in past pre-Christmas weeks, the Republican has established direct communication with Santa Claus and is prepared to publish all of the wants of Rush county little folks, who annually appeal to old Kris Kringle to supply their wants at the Yuletide season.

Bond Purchasers Wishing Seals May Exchange Coupons for Them, It is Announced

Today's report on the Christmas Seals campaign sent the total for the first two days of the campaign to $219.97, and the unusually good start made is encouraging the workers to renewed efforts in an attempt to better last year's record, when a high mark for the county was set. The second day's report showed Seals sales amounting to $90.00 and cash contributions of $4.27, bringing the day's total to $94.27. The first day's sales amounted to $125.70.

It was the volume and not the size of the sales that brought up the second day's total to such a figure. Most of the sales were for $1.00 with a number of $5.00 Health Bonds and one $10.00 Health Bond being taken.

Bond purchasers who desire stamps may exchange the coupons on the Bonds for Seals, it was announced today at campaign headquarters.

All purchasers of Seals in amounts of less than $1.00 are reported in the item of cash, it was also announced.

W. J. BURNS AGAINST RADICALS

Head of The Federal Bureau of Investigation Says Communist International Directs Campaign

SECRET REPORT REVEALED

Overthrow of American Government its Aim, He Says—Regular Schools for Reds Established

(By United Press)

Washington, Dec. 7.—The Communist Internationale, with headquarters at Moscow, Russia, is directing a widespread campaign in the United States for the overthrow of the American government and its deliverance into the hands of radicals, according to William J. Burns, head of the federal bureau of investigation.

Direct statements to this effect were made by Burns before a secret session of the house appropriation committee and were revealed today in printed transcripts of the hearing.

Burns declared that documents obtained by his bureau during the past year "clearly indicate" that the Communist Internationale is behind a strong movement "among negroes, labor unions and various social organizations with the view of overthrowing the United States government and establishing the dictatorship of the proletariat."

The prevailing sentiment that this country is secure from the spreading of radicalism, Burns said, is serving to play into the hands of the Red leaders who are urging their followers to take advantage of this feeling and work with greater diligence.

A great wave of radicalism has swept the country since the coal and rail strike and the Herron, Illinois, mine massacre, Burns declared, and has resulted in the spreading of thousands of circulars by the Communist party, urging workers to disregard injunctions issued by the court and to engage in mass action against the government.

Burns made the startling revelation that the Reds have established regular "schools" in various parts of the country where radicalism is

WILDEST WOMAN HUNT EXTENDS TO CHICAGO

Every Eastbound Train From Pacific Coast is Searched in Vain for Mrs. Clara Phillips

HUNT ON TRACKLESS DESERT

(By United Press)

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 7.—The wildest woman hunt in the history of the country was on today as an army of detectives searched madly for Clara Phillips, escaped Los Angeles "hammer slayer."

Every eastbound train from the Pacific coast was searched by officers with "tips" that Clara was aboard. Landing fields were besieged by corps of officers with rumors that Clara was coming by air.

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 7.—Out of the trackless waste and cruel desert, south of the Mexican border, the real hunt for Clara Phillips, escaped "tiger woman" of the "hammer murder case," was in progress today.

While office clerks and stenographers at the jail here were left to deal with the reports coming from all parts of the country—Ogden, Omaha, Chicago and half a dozen towns in California and Arizona—that "Clara was seen here," Sheriff Traeger and his picked assistants, devoted themselves to the Mexican border country.

Those who knew the border and who know something of Mrs. Phillips, are convinced that she has crossed the international line, that probably she crossed it before the officers knew that she had squeezed out of the cell in the county jail here.

DRAIN CASE IS STILL IN COURT

Trial of Gibson Against Pennsylvania Railroad is Postponed on That Account

TWO NEW SUITS ARE FILED

Jail Does Not Remain Empty Long as Verne Palmer is Arrested on Warrant From Ripley County

The case involving the repair of the Samuel L. Trabue drain in Center township, was again occupying the attention of the court today, and it was necessary to postpone the case of Gibson against the Pennsylvania railroad, scheduled for trial before a jury today.

In the circuit court today two new suits were docketed, one a complaint for divorce and the other a complaint on an account and to set aside a fraudulent chattel mortgage.

The jail, which was reported to be empty Wednesday, was not empty long, as Verne Palmer was placed in jail yesterday on a charge of petit larceny, on a warrant from Ripley county. The sheriff was expected today from Versailles to come after the prisoner, and the jail will once more be empty.

In the complaint for divorce, filed today, Martha Moore is plaintiff and Marshall J. Moore is the defendant. It is alleged that they were married in February 1903, and separated December 6. The plaintiff alleges that he was guilty of cruel treatment and that he had threatened to kill her and then take his own life. The complaint also charges that he failed to provide for herself and their seven children.

The parties reside north of Arlington, according to the complaint, and she asks that she be granted the custody of the children, a reasonable allowance, and an adjustment of property rights, involving household furnishings.

Alva A. Poer is plaintiff in a suit against John B. Johnson and Mary C. Johnson, in which he asks $160 judgment on an account, which he alleges is past due.

The plaintiff also alleges that the defendants entered into a fraudulent chattel mortgage in order to cheat him from obtaining judgment, and he asks that the court set aside the fraudulent mortgage, and that he be given judgment on his complaint.

TWO PRISONERS ARE ASKING FOR CLEMENCY

Elbert Morris And Cecil B. Collins, Both Sentenced Here, Appeal
To State Pardon Board

FORMER IN ONLY A MONTH

In the list of prisoners in state institutions, who are applying for clemency, appear two prisoners who were sentenced from the Rush circuit court for terms, including the names of Cecil B. Collins and Elbert Morris.

The latter, who was given a fine of $500 and a six months sentence by a jury here November 4, will be recalled as being the Milroy veterinarian who was convicted on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a girl. He has served about a month of his six months sentence at the state penal farm.

Cecil Collins, who formerly was clerk of the circuit court at Shelbyville, was found guilty here on a charge of venue on a charge of embezzlement of funds while in office, and was given a sentence of from 1 to 5 years. He was sentenced on May 11, 1920, but on account of an appeal being taken, he did not begin to serve his sentence until a few months ago.

SIX BURNED TO DEATH

Eugene, Oregon, Dec. 7.—Mrs. Iver Johnson and five children the oldest being six, were burned to death here today in an oil stove explosion at the Johnson home. Two other children and three adults were severely burned.

TO SIGNAL WATER PLANT

Telegraph Key is Installed at the Fire Department

A telegraph key has been connected with the fire alarm system, and placed in the fire department near the telephone, which will be used in case of a fire alarm received over telephone. The purpose of the key is to signal the water and light plant for pressure, as many times the department has responded to a telephone call, and no one would know that there was a fire. The key will be pushed twice when the telephone message is received, and the bell in the tower will ring twice, and also at the city plant.

When an alarm is turned in from the fire box, the gong at the city plant rings the number, and this is a signal for pressure.

THREE AGENCIES WILL JOIN HANDS

Elks, Kiwanians and Rotarians Will Aid in Conducting Santa Claus
Fund This Year

FIRST CONTRIBUTION MADE

Salvation Army Kettle Will Make its
First Appearance on Street Corner
Saturday

Santa Claus Fund

John S. Beale ----- $5.00

The Elks, Kiwanians and Rotarians will join hands in conducting the Daily Republican-Salvation Army Santa Claus fund this year. Members of these three organizations will all play Santa Claus for the tiny tots of Rushville who have no prospect of a merry Christmas without the aid of this agency.

As announced previously, the fund will be raised by popular subscriptions, as in the past, and the names of the little folks, by families, will be distributed among Rotarians, Kiwanians and Elks, who will buy their "Christmas" and deliver the gifts either Christmas eve or Christmas morning.

The Salvation Army leader, Captain Samsel, and his helpers, will prepare the baskets which will be given to families who will not be able to buy a Christmas dinner for themselves. Capt. Samsel will depend largely on contributions of foodstuff from country people to fill the baskets.

The money received by the Daily Republican will be pooled with that contributed to the Salvation Army in the Army kettle which will do its daily vigil on the street corner. The kettle will make its first appearance Saturday and will make its appeal every day until Christmas.

Mrs. A. L. Stewart and Mrs. Lila Retherford, members of the county board of children's guardians, and Capt. Samsel are making the investigations and will list the names of the children whose Christmas will be cheerless without the help of the Santa Claus fund.

The first contribution to the fund was received today. It came from John S. Beale of this city, who is always the first person to give to the fund that is designed to make Christmas a happy day in every Rushville home.

The Santa Claus fund was started fifteen years ago by the Daily Republican and every Christmas it has been carrying its mission of good cheer into every nook and corner of Rushville where Santa Claus would be a stranger if it were not for the scores of people who contribute and

REALLY PROTECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOLS

A. L. Trester, Secretary of Indiana Athletic Association, Says He's Often Regarded With Fear

SPEAKS TO THE HIGH SCHOOL

Above All, He Asserts, Athlete Must be Student and Rank as Such in His Class Standing

Urging upon high school students the great need for clean athletics and a higher standard of scholarship in the schools of the state, A. L. Trester, secretary of the Indiana High School Athletic association addressed the Junior and Senior high school here Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock.

The address here was in conjunction with the observance of American Education Week, which is being observed throughout the country this week in the interest of the advancement of education.

Mr. Trester stated that he was often looked upon as being a person to fear by high school athletes, because his rulings on eligibility always decided the fate of high school athletes. In this connection, he said that he would rather be looked upon as a protector for the schools.

He explained that there are 700 high schools in Indiana now members of the state association, all playing under the same rules, and that when one school is expelled from the state association, that it is done for the purpose of protecting the other 699 schools.

The secretary cited an incident last year in which the South Bend high school football team had three players who were ruled ineligible, two of them being over 21 years old, and the third not being a student in the high school. He called attention to the fact that it was unfair competition for high school boys to play older boys, and that for this reason the age limit is drawn at 21 years.

The South Bend high school was suspended from the state association, and will be back again on January first. He pointed out that a great portion of his business was penalizing schools, but in every case

GLEE CLUB OPERETTA TICKETS GOING GOOD

Indicate Large Crowds Will Attend
Both Presentations Of "The Fire
Prince" Next Week

RESERVED SEATS ON MONDAY

The ticket sale for "The Fire Prince" which will be given by the high school glee clubs next Wednesday and Thursday evenings, December 13 and 14, is going good and indicates a large crowd at the both presentations of the operetta, it was announced today. Tickets are in the hands of members of the clubs and all sixth grade pupils of the schools. Tickets that are now being sold may be exchanged for reserved seats at Pitman and Wilson's drug store any time after one o'clock next Monday afternoon.

The proceeds from both performances will be used to buy equipment for the music department of the public schools such as music and instruments which will be loaned to pupils who are not financially able to buy them. The fund is also used to help pay for talking machines that are being added to the school equipment.

The story of "The Fire Prince" deals with the trials and tribulations of Prigio, an opinionated youth who does not believe in fables. Prigio-fuses to kill the fire drake, which the wise man says is responsible for the scourge of heat that falls on the land, and therefore falls into disgrace. He undergoes a change of opinion, however, when Rosa, with whom he falls in love expresses a desire for the horns and tail of the fire drake. How he gets them forms an interesting part of the story.

First Prize Winner In Farm Bureau Essay Contest

The following paper, written by Frances Wilson of Ging school, in Union township, in the farm bureau essay contest on the subject, "Why My Dad Belongs to The Farm Bureau," was awarded first prize of $5.00 in gold in the school grades division of the contests:

I heard a girl say that her father didn't belong to the Farm Bureau because he never received any money back for what he had invested in it. When I went home I asked my dad why he belonged to the Farm Bureau. "Why do I belong Frances? Why the reasons are so many I could never enumerate them all. I was taught that in union there is strength. It is a lesson I have never forgotten. If in the colonial days the thirteen states had not united we would not have had this grand government we have today. There is no real industry where there is no organization. The farmers were the only class that were not organized. As for the money I have paid to the Farm Bureau, I have received nine back many times. Last fall when I was ready to buy my feed the farmers united and sent for a carload. This made the feed much cheaper. This spring the Bureau sent directly to the plant and got their fertilizers, thereby cutting out the third-man's profits. The profit of the third-man has also been taken out of our coal bills. We have sent directly to the mine for our coal receiving it much cheaper than the other way. Since we have organized we have placed Live Stock Producers Associations in all the principal markets in the United States and none of the offices have lost any money. Their expenses have been paid from the beginning and we farmers will receive back a commission on the produce that they handle for us. Our organization has been largely responsible for reducing taxes. Our agriculture representatives in Congress have already passed the following measures. The Federal Reserve Bank is established to lend the farmers money with which to buy land. The Curtis Bill will bring down the interest rates on all farm loans. The Capper Tineer Bill is designed to stabilize grain prices and to prevent speculation by gamblers on the boards of trade. They also have passed a bill for co-operative marketing and a bill to regulate packing houses and stock yards. At the next Congress the farmers will ask for the following measures: A Truth in membership of 766 will be more than doubled.

Practically every farmer at the Posey township meeting at Arlington became a member last night, a total of seventy memberships being obtained, which is only nine below the present membership. The canvass today was expected to bring the total for the township to more than 100. M. P. Hill and Fred Bell spoke and an entertainment was provided by Fitch Cooper of Elwood.

Orange township leaders predicted today that the township membership would be boosted to more than 100 by the campaign. Before last night's meeting opened 35 members had been signed, which was the equal of this year's membership. The meeting was held at the Gowdy church and was addressed by C. J. Patterson.

Every farmer—approximately forty—joined at the Rushville township meeting held at Webb school, which was addressed by H. P. Nevins. This township also expected to go to 100 or more in the solicitation today.

Favorable reports came today from Walker township, following the meeting at the Homer I. O. O. F. hall, which was addressed by John Covert. Every farmer present except one joined the association.

THREAT OF INDIANA STRIKE

Coal Miners Will Be Called Out Dec. 10, Union Official Predicts

(By United Press)

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 7.—"A call for a strike of Indiana coal miners, December, 10, except in the Brazil block field, will likely be issued soon," T. I. Roberts, district vice-president of the United Mine Workers declared today.

"Action on the matter will await the return of Mr. Hessler from the Chicago conference of miners and operators," he said.

Many operators have refused to check $4 off the miners wages at the request of the unions, as a payment of losses sustained by the unions in the recent strike. Hessler declared that if they don't check it off by December 10, there will be a state wide strike involving 30,000 miners.

it was for the protection of the other schools.

Clean athletics, the speaker stated, consisted of students playing the game square and fair, winning games honestly and without resorting to underhanded methods.

Above all in high school athletics he said, the participant must be a student, and rank as such in class standing. No player can take part in the games unless his grades in three subjects are passing, and he must have passed in three subjects at the last promotion.

The matter of class standing is often not understood by the public, Mr. Trester stated, and people are given to criticizing the schools for encouraging athletics. In this connection, he said that it was true that athletics would not be the means of the pupil making a living after he has gone out of school, but the physical training obtained would turn out a healthier and better bodied individual who would be more acceptable than a weakling.

Clean athletics and good sportsmanship in any kind of a high school contest also is brought out by the school in the manner and attitude of the spectators toward the referee, who is the official at any contest, the speaker asserted.

Mr. Trester stated that it was poor sportsmanship to "razz" the official, and that this always gave the school a bad reputation. The crowd that applauds the official for calling fouls, either on the home team or the visiting team, is the crowd which displays true sportsmanship.

He stated that a few weeks ago at a city near here (Franklin) the crowd had a spectator, not a high school student, but one who was from the visiting city (Shelbyville) and he continually "razzed" the referee, until the affair came to blows. He stated that this affair will be taken up by the state board and that the referee, the "razzer" and the two high school principals will be called to give an account of the affair.

In recent years the Republican Santa Claus effort has been combined with the Salvation Army to prevent duplication of effort. Since combining with the Salvation Army, baskets of food for Christmas dinners for the poor have also been provided—a service which the Sal-

EDUCATIONAL WEEK

The import of this title can not be treated lightly. In this age of exaggerated speed let us bring the old machine to a full stop and pause—reflect. Actually stop to think. It is our nation's one hope today. No matter what our location or vocation that brain of ours can only operate as trained. A finished degree of training must be acquired by intensive education.

Let our school folk pause and reflect upon their own educational advantages — and that a properly trained mind can not bring dishonor to our flag.

THY KEEPER: The Lord is thy keeper; 'the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.—Psalm 121: 5.

Smoke Them Out

Shall America have a merchant
marine worthy of the name, or shall
we allow our thousands of valuable
ships to rot at their docks or be sold
for junk?

A great American merchant marine would mean a tremendous increase in the prosperity of this country, and just now we would not

be averse to even a slight increase.

Washington has precipitated a tidal
wave of indignation by exposing
what is alleged to be a gigantic plot
of British shipping interests to wreck
President Harding's ship subsidy bill
and thereby keep American merchant
vessels off the seas.

The British ambassador emphatically denies that he or his staff are
in any way engaged in such a plot,
and he probably speaks the truth.
He would hardly court the fate of
another ambassador who meddled in our affairs and was promptly sent home.

But it is quite possible that there
is such a plot in existence, although official Britain may not be taking a hand.

No one but a traitor to this country would accept pay from a foreign nation or people for wrecking a bill that is designed to create
a merchant marine that will mean
future prosperity for us.

There are many people who honestly oppose a ship subsidy, but they are not accepting foreign gold to bolster up their opposition.

But if there are traitors at work
in Washington it is time to smoke
them out and treat them as such.

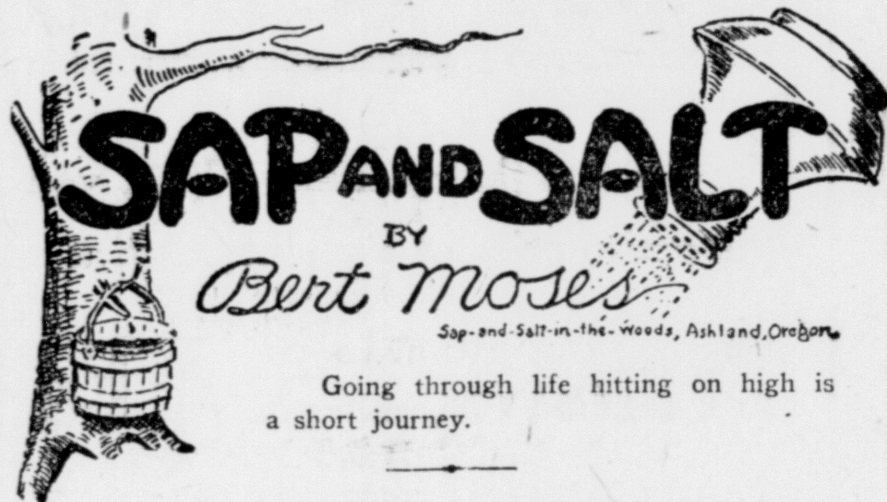

Send 'Em Along

The visit of the "Tiger of France"
to the United States is beginning to
bear fruit—of a different kind.

He has been doing some plain
speaking in his public addresses,
with the result that other countries
are speaking up and are accusing France of thwarting every attempt to establish a European peace on a sane and safe basis.

Now let's have a few more foreign dignitaries over, and perhaps in time we will be able to determine
what's the matter with Europe.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

Too Much Amusement

To the editor of The Republican:

Are we not having too much theatre? I am strongly of the opinion
of our glorious poet, "Life is real,
life is earnest and the grave is not
its goal, dust thou art to dust returneth, was not written of the soul."

The ideal seems to predominate in all we take in hand. The little bit of school entertainment must put
up an array of Indians marching
around with turkey feathers in their heads. The club life, the fraternity
life, the college campus, has to go
on this kind of type. And the Rest
day of God, given to us for soul
culture in which we may be fitted
for a nobler existence is prostituted
to a day for games of all sorts until it almost appears this is only a Christian land in name.

My soul was stirred in a great measure a few days ago when a man of large observation gave it as
his thought that nine-tenths of the men and women of this country are
living in total disloyalty to the seventh commandment. If this is anything like the truth, let us call back
our missionaries from the other side
of the globe and establish long lines
of home missionaries giving teaching on the obedience to God's law.

Are ministers afraid to speak out
on so big a delinquency? In our service out in the county, the preacher
gave a good sermon on Thanksgiving
from the text "Enter into his county with thanksgiving and pay thy vows to the most high." Not one word did he have to say on the latter part of his text when the whole community has been in tears over a young man in our church life. It has lately been developed he has been
for months seeking to break up another fine young man's home by stealing his wife from his bosom. It is thought to have originated by a
vast amount of meetings for games.
A business man in this city gave
it as his opinion that Rushville has gone to seed with such a vast amount of fraternities! While visiting for a day in Shelbyville at the home of my daughter it was arranged that I should attend a picture show. Well I fell in for the time, the talented young student girl
taking my hand as we crowded on

through the densely full hall to get seats. The program seemed to be
to show the discomfiture of a dis-
consolate son-in-law and a stingy
mother-in-law. A table was there
with a good lot of tempting victuals
but not a bit for that hungry son-
in-law, if the old lady could prevent
it. If I could have got over to the inside of the affair, I should led that mother-in-law out. As we came away the grand-daughter asked,
"How did you like it?" Said I,
"not a little bit." It is not the picture of any mother-in-law I ever knew. I have had two mothers-in-law and they each were superior
home makers and the very soul of hospitality. And I could hand Gres-
train my indignation at such abuse
of a much abused clan of women
from a certain class of hoodlums.
But this was my first and I think
my last of the picture theatre.

But what of the amount of impurity in our community life? I
asked a man, a good neighbor,
whom I greeted at the marriage altar nearly fifty years ago, "What
do you think of this state of affairs?" He replied, "I surely think it is over stated". In your large circle of brothers and sisters—did they
not all square their life by loyalty
to Christ? And in my knowledge of my father's family and fathers-in-
law's family, five daughters in one
and three in the other, they reared
up law abiding families, all have crossed the Great Divide but one in each tribe. All living and dead in loyalty to Christ.

The law of Moses would have stoned the adulterous women but Jesus said women go and sin no
more, but also taught, that whoso
looketh on a woman to commit adultery hath in his heart committed adultery. It is a fine point to be a Christian but not one of us will ever attain a home among the pure
in heart in Heaven that does not attain and live in it to the end. If nine-tenths are on the broad way
to destruction God pity our poor
crooked unbelieving hearts and
lives.—T. B. G.

COMPARES TWO SCHOOL TYPES

B. D. Farthing County Superintendent Of Schools, Presents Study For School Patrons

EDUCATION WEEK PROGRAM

Ideal System Presented In Eight Points And Opposite, The Worst Type, Also Outlined

There are two types of school systems employed in this country, one being the best type and the other the worst type, and along this subject in connection with the American Education Week, county superintendent B. D. Farthing has itemized eight points for each side, which will do well for school patrons to study.

It would be needless to say that the best type offers school children better advantages in school work, while the worst types show a tendency backwards instead of forward, and the urgent demands at this time are better boys and girls.

The extremes of the two kinds of school systems can be studied by the following eight points for the best schools

1. A term of 200 school days. In the vacation time as well as during the school term he is taught to play and work intelligently, and if he is behind his class in any of his studies he is given help to catch up.
2. A large number of studies from which to choose. Of course he is taught the usual spelling, reading, writing arithmetic, grammar, geography, and history. Besides these he may take what he likes best from music, drawing, manual training, home economics, agriculture, machine shop work, and other such subjects. He is taught to use his writing, arithmetic and reading in the study of these other subjects that he likes.

3. Several teachers who have been trained in normal schools or colleges and have had experience in teaching. Instead of being under only one teacher for the whole day, he works with two or more. They all have an interest in him, and can at any time meet as a group and plan how best to help him.
4. Examinations by a good doctor or trained nurse every two or three months so that any sickness may be stopped before it may become serious. Besides that a psychologist is at hand to help him overcome any bad habits he may have formed.

5. A number of children of his own age and grade with whom to play and work. He learns from them and with them how to behave and forgets himself.
6. A number of children in classes and grades just above his. Their talk play, and work make him wish himself in the higher grades and rouses his interest in getting there.

7. A place where his father and mother may and do meet the fathers and the mothers of other children, and all meet the teachers. In that way every one becomes interested in the school and the children.
8. A clean, well-lightened, well-heated, well-ventilated school building, with plenty of equipment good books, fine pictures, and a large playground.

The Worst Type of School Offers the Child:

1. As short a term as the law will allow, usually not more than 100 or 120 days. There is a long vacation; the child does as he pleases all during that time, forgets most of what he learned and loses all interest in school.
2. A few of the usual studies, spelling, reading, writing arithmetic, history and geography, and only a little of each of these. He is not taught to use them in his daily life.
3. One young teacher who hasn't had a good high school course and knows little or nothing about how to teach.
4. No care at all by a trained nurse or doctor. The child may be ill and no one knows it until he gets so very ill that much damage has been done.
5. Few or no playmates in his own class or age.
6. Few or no children in the classes just above him. If there are any they may be of a kind that set him a bad example.
7. Nothing to help rouse the interest of his parents in his school work.
8. A dirty, ill-kept, badly lighted, unevenly heated, unventilated school house, with no library books little equipment, and an ugly, uncared-for playground.

ILLITERACY DAY

By EUGENE B. BUTLER
(Principal of the High School)
Today has been designed as Illiteracy Day as part of the general observance of "American Education Week," December 3-9.

Appreciating fully the great achievements that have been made in education let us face frankly its shortcomings when measured by progress in other fields of activity.

The United States has the highest percentage of illiteracy among enlightened nations of the world. We are highest with 6% and Germany is lowest with 2%. Should the richest nation in the world lag behind other enlightend nations in stamping out illiteracy?

The fact that our last Federation Census enumerated 5,000,000 self-confessed illiterates represents a menace to our democratic institutions. In the army classifications of 1,522,256 men examined, 24.9% of our nation's young manhood were unable to read newspapers and write letters home. These facts raise this question—Is the degree of literate ability that we have been accepting too low to guarantee stability of a democracy?

The prevalence of illiteracy in our adult population constitutes a menace to our democratic institutions. Fortunately all illiterate adults do not vote nor is illiteracy confined to any one section of the country. Illiteracy is not solely a problem of the South. New York has more illiterates than any state in the union, and three of our Northern states contain a greater number of illiterates than any other three states of the union.

Again the removal of illiteracy is principally a problem of dealing with the native-born rather than the foreign born. In 1920 there were 1,847,172 foreign-born illiterates in the United States and 3,084,733 native born illiterates. This is equivalent to 38% for the former and 62% for the latter. This finally raises the serious question—Are all American children getting an "unfettered start in the race of life?" We cannot afford to have our effectiveness as a democracy diluted for a century by a menace that would quickly fade before an adequate educational system.

MANY VIOLATIONS OF LIQUOR LAWS

According To Attorney General's Report 35,000 persons were Arrested For Law Violations

2157 CIVIL CASES LISTED

These Criminal And Civil Actions Represent Only Small Part Of All Arrests Made In U. S.

Washington, Dec. 7.—The widespread extent of prohibition law violations which has caused concern to President Harding and cabinet was revealed today in the annual report to Congress of Attorney General Daugherty.

Approximately 35,000 persons were arrested by the federal government for violation of the national prohibition law during the last fiscal year, according to the report. Civil cases prosecuted by the government during the same time numbered 2,157.

These criminal and civil actions however represent only a small part of all the arrests made in the United States for the same period. Nearly four times as many arrests were made by local, county and state officials for violation of state and local dry statutes, it was estimated.

Federal officials convicted 22,749 persons in criminal cases and secured a total of $120,000 in judgments in the civil suits.

The population of the federal prisons for the same period increased to 6,395 compared with 5,268 for the last fiscal year. Herber H. Votaw brother-in-law of President Harding, and superintendent of prisons reported. The increase was held due largely to increased violations of the anti-drug act, counterfeiting violation of the postal law.

White Slavery is on the decrease, William J. Burns, head of the bureau of investigation of the department, reported. A total of 1,885 years was imposed on the 3,526 persons convicted for white slavery, Burns stated. Fines totaled $386,743.

Practically all organized white slave gangs have been broken up, with their members either in jail or in hiding in foreign countries, Burns reported.

Attorney General Daugherty recommended to congress the enactment of a law to prevent the sending of threatening letters through the mails. This recommendation it was indicated is designed to curb the activities of certain secret societies which send warnings through the mails before restoring to flogging and other terroristic tactics.

Other recommendations made by Daugherty include:

A law to make it a crime to kill a federal officer engaged in serving or executing a process. The present law simply makes it a crime to assault, beat or wound a federal officer.

A law to make it a crime for a single individual to defraud or attempt to defraud the United States.

To increase the statute of limitation for criminal prosecution in bankruptcy cases from one to three years.

To increase the allowance of department of justice officials, when traveling on business, from $4 and $5 per day to $6 and $7. The high cost of living makes this necessary, Daugherty holds.

PAYING FOR WAR OF 1812

U. S. is Still Paying 49 Widows of Soldiers Killed in This Conflict

Washington, Dec. 7.—The United States still is paying for the War of 1812, the annual report of the Commissioner of Pensions made public today showed.

Forty-nine widows of soldiers and sailors participating in this conflict which was waged 110 years ago still are living and receiving Government aid.

Seventy-three men who participated in the Mexican War in 1827 still are on the pension rolls.

Although the blue line grows thinner each Memorial Day, 193,881 Civil war veterans are among the 547,016 pensioners. This number, of course, does not include World war veterans. The number decreased from 566,053, the total for 1921. Pension expenditures for the last fiscal year totaled $253,715,842.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

IF MIXED WITH SULPHUR IT DARKENS SO NATURALLY NOBODY CAN TELL

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's recipe, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product, improved by the addition of other ingredients, called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound, is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft lustre and appearance of abundance which is so attractive.

LEAGUE ASSAILS SPOILS SYSTEM

Report Submitted to Opening Session of Civil Service Reform League's Annual Convention

SEEK VOLSTEAD AMENDMENT

Post Office Department is "Severely Condemned" in Report Seeking Congress Recommendations

Washington, Dec. 7.—A demand upon congress for immediate amendment of the Volstead act to check prohibition enforcement scandals, by placing all prohibition agents under civil service is made in the report of the Council of the National Civil Service Reform League, submitted today at the opening session of the League's forty-second annual convention.

The report demands also that laws giving preference to veterans of the world war in appointment to positions under the federal government be repealed and that the appointment of politicians to post-masterships be terminated, by requiring the selection for office of the person standing highest on the eligible lists prepared by the United States Civil Service Commission.

When the Volstead act was passed civil service rules requiring appointment on merit, following competitive examinations, were waived in the case of prohibition agents and this wide field of patronage left open for possible political exploitation. The report cites a long list of prohibition scandals which it says are directly traceable to political appointments.

"Under the Republican administration," the report asserts, "appointments have been dictated in large measure by the Republican leaders in the various states, as they were by Democratic administration."

A list is given of Republican politicians indicted in prohibition scandals and it is stated that "the first essential to adequate law enforcement," is the placing of the vast corps of prohibition enforcement agents in the competitive classified service.

If I Were a Factory Superintendent—

THERE would be at least two ways in which I could save my firm some money.

First, I would dispose of all the machines and equipment which I could no longer use and perhaps lay around and litter up the plant—turn it into cash.

Secondly, I would collect the waste—all the odds and ends—and cash in on it.

tacked by the report on the ground that they result in many cases in the appointment of inefficient officials to transact the public business. The relative ability and capacity of men appointed under the preference laws is shown by competitive examinations, the report asserts, to be far below that of non-veterans on the eligible lists.

"A veteran who is worth his salt," it continued, "will want to stand on his own feet and not be dependent on special favors for his future existence. It is only the delirious and the mediocre veterans who will seek the advantage of the preference given. The preference law was never justifiable. Its repeal is imperative."

The Post Office department is "severely condemned" in the report for seeking the recommendations of Congressmen prior to making post-mastership appointments. Under President Harding's modification of the Wilson order on presidential postmasters, which is set down as "a distinct concession to the demands of Congress for spoils," any one of the three highest eligibles may be appointed, and Congressmen are given the privilege by the post office department, the report states, of designating their choices for postmasters in their districts.

"It is an essential absurdity," the report continues, "to have competitive examinations for the purpose of eliminating spoils and still to admit the patronage system by permitting congressmen and local politicians to determine upon the selection of one of the first three."

During the administration of President Roosevelt, the report states, the appointment was given to the first man on the eligible list in over 90 percent of the cases, whereas under the Harding order the first man on the list for postmaster is appointed in less than 44 percent of the cases.

RAIL TONNAGE HAS INCREASED

Present High Railroad Rates No Longer Interfere With Flow of Commerce as a Whole

ANNUAL REPORT SUBMITTED

Commerce Commission Says Installation of Automatic Train Control is Progressing

By WILLIAM J. LOSH
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, Dec. 7.—Present high railroad rates, bitterly attacked by farm bloc leaders in Congress "no longer interfere with the flow of commerce as a whole," the Interstate Commerce Commission declares in its annual report submitted to Congress today.

"The tonnage moved by the railroads has been steadily increasing in recent months, until at the end of the period covered by this report—November 1—the traffic is almost equal to the largest ever handled by our railroads," the report states.

Until earnings by the carriers reach the 5.75 percent set as "reasonable" by the Commission, there is little prospect of further decreases in rates, the report indicates. Earnings in 1921 were "clearly inadequate," the Commission found. Possibly increased earnings by the roads from the present flood of traffic were absorbed by the commission in the 10 percent reduction ordered last July, in anticipation of the present increased traffic. The exact effect of this reduction on earnings has not yet been determined by the commission because of the strikes last summer.

Installation of automatic train control devices on railroads is progressing, the report states. Complete installation is not compulsory before January 1, 1925. Tests completed on March 31, last on 276 miles of track involving 659,875 observations "demonstrated that automatic train control devices have been developed to the point where they are now practicable under actual service conditions, and that when properly installed, they increase the safety of train operation."

"The need for automatic train control devices has been further emphasized since January 1, 1922," the report continues, "by our investigation of six serious train accidents resulting from non-obedience to automatic bloc signals. These accidents resulted in the death of 50 persons and injury of 488 others. Occurrence of accidents of this character will undoubtedly continue unless automatic devices to compel obedience to signals are installed."

During the past fiscal year, the Commission granted more applications to abandon existing lines than it did petitions to construct new lines revealing a serious situation. Abandonment of 526 miles was authorized against permission to construct 446 miles. During the present fiscal year, however, applications to construct 2951 miles of line were received against applications to abandon only 808 miles.

Casualties in accidents on steam railroads during the calendar year of 1921, according to the Bureau of Safety of the Commission, amounted to 5587 killed and 43,324 injured. Of this number however, only 205 killed and 5584 injured were listed as "passengers".

FINAL REHEARSALS HELD

Milroy High School Preparing For Operetta on Dec. 8 and 9

Final rehearsals on the comic operetta, "Princess Chrysanthemum", which will be presented by the chorus of Milroy high school Friday and Saturday evenings, are being held this week. The time is being given largely to polishing and putting the final touches on the three acts. A dress rehearsal was held Wednesday evening. The home economics classes of the high school have been busy for several days making chorus costumes. Stage settings have been procured and arranged by John R. Beasley, stage manager. Mrs. C. R. Crane has been secured as accompanist.

There was a brisk demand for tickets for both performances when they were placed on sale Wednesday morning. This is the third operetta given by the Milroy school.

A SIN TO LET HAIR FALL OUT

35c "Danderine" Saves Your Hair—Ends Dandruff! Delightful Tonic

Hurry! It's your duty! Each day you see a little more hair falling out and you are making no effort to avoid baldness. What a pity. Falling hair means your hair is weak, sick, possibly dandruff is strangling it, or the hair root pores in the scalp are not firm and tight, thus wasting the hair-growing oils.

Danderine almost instantly stops falling hair of men or women and cleans every particle of dandruff away, then the hair takes on new life, vigor and strength to grow strong, thick, and long.

Danderine is delightful—not sticky or greasy. Go to any drugstore now and get a bottle. Use it. Have healthy, heavy, beautiful hair and lots of it.

Even if you call your family physician he will praise you for having given "California Fig Syrup" as the laxative because it never fails, never cramps or overacts, and even sick children love its pleasant taste.

Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Smoke Them Out

Shall America have a merchant
marine worthy of the name, or shall
we allow our thousands of valuable
ships to rot at their docks or be sold
for junk?

A great American merchant marine would mean a tremendous increase in the prosperity of this

be averse to even a slight increase.

Washington has precipitated a tidal
wave of indignation by exposing
what is alleged to be a gigantic plot
of British shipping interests to wreck
President Harding's ship subsidy bill
and thereby keep American merchant
vessels off the seas.

The British ambassador emphatically denies that he or his staff are
in any way engaged in such a plot,
and he probably speaks the truth.
He would hardly court the fate of
another ambassador who meddled in our affairs and was promptly sent home.

But it is quite possible that there
is such a plot in existence, although
official Britain may not be taking a
hand.

No one but a traitor to this
country would accept pay from a
foreign nation or people for wreck-
ing a bill that is designed to create
a merchant marine that will mean
future prosperity for us.

There are many people who honestly oppose a ship subsidy, but they are not accepting foreign gold to
bolster up their opposition.

But if there are traitors at work
in Washington it is time to smoke
them out and treat them as such.

The visit of the "Tiger of France"
to the United States is beginning to
bear fruit—of a different kind.

He has been doing some plain
speaking in his public addresses,
with the result that other countries
are speaking up and are accusing
France of thwarting every attempt
to establish a European peace on a
sane and safe basis.

Now let's have a few more foreign dignitaries over, and perhaps
in time we will be able to determine
what's the matter with Europe.

PEOPLE'S SAYSO

Too Much Amusement

To the editor of The Republican:

Are we not having too much theatre? I am strongly of the opinion
of our glorious poet, "Life is real,
life is earnest and the grave is not
its goal, dust thou art to dust returneth, was not written of the
soul."

The ideal seems to predominate in
all we take in hand. The little bit
of school entertainment must put
up an array of Indians marching
around with turkey feathers in their
heads. The club life, the fraternity
life, the college campus, has to go
on this kind of type. And the Rest
day of God, given to us for soul
culture in which we may be fitted
for a nobler existence is prostituted
to a day for games of all sorts until it almost appears this is only a Christian land in name.

My soul was stirred in a great
measure a few days ago when a
man of large observation gave it as
his thought that nine-tenths of the
men and women of this country are
living in total disloyalty to the seventh commandment. If this is anything like the truth, let us call back
our missionaries from the other side
of the globe and establish long lines
of home missionaries giving teaching on the obedience to God's law.

Are ministers afraid to speak out
on so big a delinquency? In our service out in the country, the preacher
gave a good sermon on Thanksgiving
from the text "Enter into his county with thanksgiving and pay thy
vows to the most high." Not one
word did he have to say on the latter part of his text when the whole
community has been in tears over a young man in our church life. It has lately been developed he has been
for months seeking to break up an-
other fine young man's home by
stealing his wife from his bosom. It
is thought to have originated by a
vast amount of meetings for games.

A business man in this city gave
it as his opinion that Rushville has
gone to seed with such a vast
amount of fraternities! While visiting for a day in Shelbyville at the
home of my daughter it was arranged that I should attend a picture show. Well I fell in for the
time, the talented young student girl
taking my hand as we crowded on

through the densely full hall to get
seats. The program seemed to be
to show the discomfiture of a dis-
consolate son-in-law and a stingy
mother-in-law. A table was there
with a good lot of tempting victuals
but not a bit for that hungry son-
in-law, if the old lady could prevent
it. If I could have got over to the
inside of the affair, I should led that
mother-in-law out. As we came
away the grand-daughter asked,
"How did you like it?" Said I,
"not a little bit." It is not the picture of any mother-in-law I ever
knew. I have had two mothers-in-
law and they each were superior
home makers and the very soul of
hospitality. And I could hand Gres-
train my indignation at such abuse
of a much abused clan of women
from a certain class of hoodlums.
But this was my first and I think
my last of the picture theatre.

But what of the amount of im-
purity in our community life? I
asked a man, a good neighbor,
whom I greeted at the marriage al-
tar nearly fifty years ago, "What
do you think of this state of affairs?" He replied, "I surely think it is over stated." In your large circle of brothers and sisters did they
not all square their life by loyalty
to Christ? And in my knowledge of
my father's family and fathers-in-
law's family, five daughters in one
and three in the other, they reared
up law abiding families, all have
crossed the Great Divide but one in each tribe. All living and dead in loyalty to Christ.

The law of Moses would have
stoned the adulterous women but
Jesus said women go and sin no
more, but also taught that whose
looketh on a woman to commit adultery hath in his heart committed
adultery. It is a fine point to be a Christian but not one of us will ever attain a home among the pure
in heart in Heaven that does not attain and live in it to the end. If
nine-tenths are on the broad way
to destruction God pity our poor
crooked unbelieving hearts and
lives.—T. B. G.

AMUSEMENTS

Frank Mayo at Mystic
Was there ever a gambler who did not at some time resort to crookedness in the shuffle of cards, or the turn of the wheel or the roll of the dice? Just such a gambler is the hero of "Caught Bluffing," the Universal production starring Frank Mayo, coming to the Mystic today.

The story, is laid in Alaska when the gambling fever was at its height following the mad rush for gold to the Klondike. The gambler hero of the picture, a confirmed woman hater, is confronted with the task of saving a girl from the clutches of a two-gun bad man, and he offers to stake a fortune in gold against the girl's liberty in a hand of poker. For the first time in his long and honorable career of chance, he resorts to the cunning fingers to cheat the bad man of his living prey, and he succeeds. Then despite his natural prejudice against all women in general, he loses his heart to the girl he had won at cards.

Edna Murphy is cast in the leading feminine role opposite Frank Mayo and plays her part in a manner that justifies her rapid rise to a place in filmdom's sun.

Pictures And Comedy At Princess
Vaudeville and pictures will head the week end bill at the Princess today and Saturday, with two acts of vaudeville, a feature picture and a comedy. May McAvoy, a favorite in Rushville, will be seen in the title role in the feature picture.

The last picture made by the late William D. Taylor, the Paramount director who recently was the mysterious assassination in Hollywood, Calif., was "The Top of New York," a Paramount picture starring May McAvoy. It is said that Mr. Taylor's directorial art never was more conspicuously displayed in a picture production than in this delightful story of tenement and department store life in a great city.

Miss McAvoy has the role of a New York tenement girl who clerks in the toy section of a huge department store.

First Baptist Church
Pastor, Rev. Reno Tacoma.
Sunday school, 9:30 a. m.
Morning worship, 10:30 a. m. sermon subject "The Reward for Service."
Evening worship, 7 p. m. sermon subject "Counting the Cost."
Midweek prayer service Thursday evening 7:30 p. m.
Everybody is cordially invited to these services.

SUCH IS LIFE

"Eighteen years ago I had three ribs broken, fourteen years ago my light leg; eleven years ago I nearly went over with typhoid fever and since then have had awful stomach and liver trouble. Was filled with gas most all the time. I would have colic attacks so bad as to become unconscious. No medicine helped me and doctors advised an operation. One day talking with a stranger he recommended Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which helped me at once." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. For sale by druggists everywhere.

What College F. B. Owes Public

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, Dec. 8—Chicago University students opposed the suggestion that a big stadium be built at the university to accommodate the crowds that want to see inter-collegiate football in that city.
The attitude was taken that present facilities were sufficient to accommodate the students of the university and that Chicago was not playing football for the public.
Harvard, Yale and Princeton refuse to place tickets on public sale for the "Big Three" games, on the grounds that the public is not entitled to see the games until the alumni has been taken care of.
Harvard, Yale and Princeton cannot be criticized as they are perfectly within their rights in maintaining that their own should be accommodated first and it is known that the demands of their own alumni are far greater than the supply of tickets.
Chicago also may be right in considering that football is not conducted there for the public although it may be taken by some as rather snobbish in ignoring the fact that the public is becoming vastly interested in football.
Private and semi-private institutions have every right to make arbitrary measures for the regulation of their sports, but when public and government institutions assume "the public be damned" attitude, the public has a right to rise on its heels and paw the air.
Distribution of the tickets for the recent Army-Navy game in Philadelphia reached almost the point of a scandal that should receive some attention from Washington.
West Point and Annapolis cannot take the stand that their annual football game is a private affair. They do not play at West Point and Annapolis, but make a play for public patronage by playing in the largest stadium available.
In the new Pennsylvania stadium 10,000 more seats were available than were provided at the Polo grounds, for the inter-service game last year, and yet the tickets were scarcer than ever.
Few except scalpers had tickets in Philadelphia. Where thousands of football fans were ready and willing to pay the face value for the tickets, they had to go to bellhops, chauffeurs and newsboys for tickets and pay as much as $15 to $25 for them.
The point in question is—if all kinds of scalpers were able to get the tickets, why was the public not given the same opportunity?
Several prominent newspapers and news associations in New York and Philadelphia, which at least deserve courtesy for the columns and columns of news space devoted to the game, wrote to West Point and Annapolis to buy tickets and they were not even given the courtesy of an answer.
Editors who wanted to see the game had to go to scalpers and buy the tickets for outlandish prices.

ARLINGTON A. C. FIVE WINS

Defeats Lewisville Thursday Night
By Score Of 45 To 22

The Arlington Athletic Club's basketball team defeated the Lewisville team Thursday night, 45 to 22, at the Arlington gym. The game was fast all the way. Lewisville during the first few minutes of play, piled up four points before Arlington made a point.
The A. C.'s soon got together and were leading 16 to 4 at half time. Gardner and Shook were the leading point getters for Arlington, Shook making several points which looked impossible. Tolison at Center and Beasley at back guard were also good.

Next Thursday the Shelbyville Commercial team will clash with Arlington. This game promises to be fast as Shelbyville has a bunch of former high school stars.
